CHARLOTTE HALL SCHOOL SITE

A special meeting of the County Commissioners was convened by Commissioner President McKay, who stated that the purpose of the meeting was to discuss and resolve the pending decision relative to the County's option to purchase the Charlotte Hall property. Mr. McKay further stated that motions on any other matters would not be entertained.

Commissioner Parlett moved, seconded by Commissioner Dean, that the County should extend its current option for thirty days to give the State of Maryland and the Veterans' Home Commission time to explore participation in a joint purchase of the Charlotte Hall School property.

During the discussion of the motion, each Commissioner expressed opinions favoring the location of the Veterans' Home at Charlotte Hall and the extension of the option to effect that location. Four Commissioners voted in favor, with Commissioner McKay abstaining.

The meeting adjourned at 5:50 p.m.

Approved:

JAMES M. MCKAY
