

MTA CONNECTIONS

The Maryland Transit Administration (MTA), which is a division of the State of Maryland Department of Transportation, provides commuter express bus services to Washington D.C. on four (4) separate routes from three (3) park and ride lots in St. Mary's County. These lots are located in California near the St. Mary's County Regional Airport, Charlotte Hall and Golden Beach.

The four (4) MTA routes are operated under a service contract with a private transportation provider. Two routes stop at the Charlotte Hall park and ride, two routes stop at Golden Beach park and ride and one route stops at California park and ride.
